

Cookery

How to Cook Everything, Tenth Anniversary Edition

Mark Bittman

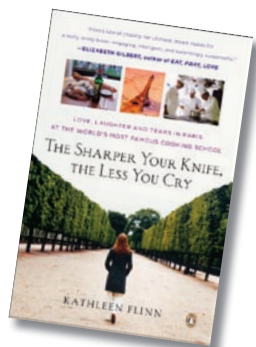

Completely revised and updated with delicious contemporary recipes and easy-to-use new features, Mark Bittman's award-winning classic is now better and more indispensable than ever! $35.00 John Wiley & Sons

The Sharper Your Knife, the Less You Cry

Kathleen Flinn

After losing her job and falling in love, Flinn took her entire life savings, moved to Paris and exercised her childhood dream by enrolling in the Cordon Bleu cooking school.

$15.00 Penguin Books

The Fireside Cookbook:

A Complete Guide to Fine Cooking for Beginner and Expert

James A. Beard, introduction by Mark Bittman

This facsimile edition of Beard's first comprehensive masterwork is lavishly illustrated, with more than 1,200 recipes simple enough for the novice and delicious enough for the most meticulous master chef.

$30.00 Simon & Schuster

Fix-It and Forget-It Big Cookbook

Phyllis Pellman Good

Finally, all in one handsome volume, the best 1,400 slow-cooker recipes! Bestselling author Phyllis Pellman Good has gathered the biggest collection of tantalizing, best-ever slow-cooker recipes into one great book. Easy to understand, easy to use.

$29.95 Good Books

The Vegetable Dishes I Can't Live Without

Mollie Katzen

America's foremost vegetarian chef, and author of The Moosewood Cookbook series, shares more than 100 of her best vegetable recipes in this warm, hand-lettered cookbook.

$22.95 Hyperion

Ten: All the Foods We Love and Ten Recipes for Each

Sheila Lukins

With the help from some of America's most beloved chefs, Lukins serves up our 32 favorite foods from soups to steaks to chocolate, offering the 10 best recipes for each.

$19.95 Workman

Amarcord: Marcella Remembers

Marcella Hazan

The beloved teacher and bestselling cookbook author tells how a young girl raised in a quiet Italian fishing town became America's godmother of Italian cooking.

$27.50 Gotham