

Inspired Gifts

The Traveler

Daren Simkin, pictures by Daniel Simkin and Daren Simkin
Paired with simple, elegant pictures, this charming fable artfully evokes a life philosophy that so many miss until it is too late: living and loving are time well spent.
$12.95 Farrar, Straus and Giroux

What's Your Red Rubber Ball?

Kevin Carroll

Offers tweens and teens a fun, accessible way to think about their hopes and dreams. Includes inspirational cards, a removable dream statement and box to decorate.
$19.99 (ages 9–12)
ESPN Books/Disney Press

Buddha in a Teacup: Tales of Enlightenment

Todd Walton

Stories of emotional and spiritual breakthroughs in the lives of ordinary people, "...subtle, delicate, and beautiful—each a thought provoking gem." — Elizabeth Marshall Thomas
$19.95 Lost Coast Press

How to Be Happy

Lama Zopa Rinpoche

Learn to transform all life's inevitable problems into happiness and peace with this warm and smile-provoking gift book.
$9.95 Wisdom Publications

This I Believe II: More Personal Philosophies of Remarkable Men and Women

Jay Allison and Dan Gediman

Moving and irresistible essays that compel readers to rethink not only how they arrive at their own personal beliefs but also how they share them with others.
$23.00 Henry Holt

Listening is an Act of Love

Edited and introduction by Dave Isay

"These stories come from the souls of individual Americans. Collectively, they are who we are as a people. You cannot read this book without feeling proud of your country." — Former U.S. Senator Bill Bradley
$15.00 Penguin Books

Icarus at the Edge of Time

Brian Greene

Illustrated with spectacular images taken by the Hubble Telescope, a futuristic re-imagining of the Icarus fable from the bestselling author of Fabric of the Cosmos.
$19.95 Knopf