

DYLAN MECONIS

Queen of the Sea by Dylan Meconis

Exiled royalty. Nuns with secrets. Life and death situations as inspired by the early years of Queen Elizabeth I. Island-raised, convent dwelling Margaret's quite ordinary existence becomes complicated with the arrival of William—a boy her age and her first friend—and the dethroned Queen Eleanor, whose schemes of revenge will put all their lives in jeopardy. Meconis has crafted a gripping historical fantasy full of exquisite details that will have readers of all ages wanting more.

2020 PACIFIC NORTHWEST BOOK AWARDS