

ANNE DE MARCKEN

It Lasts Forever And Then It's Over by Anne de Marcken (Olympia, WA)

In haunting prose, de Marcken guides us through the world of her unnamed, undead narrator with a deft hand and unparalleled tenderness. As she travels westward, reaching for the details of a life that she has forgotten, she meets humanity in all its disparate forms, encountering violence, devotion, and grief—the breadth of the human experience.